Why Bondoni ?

“To Get it Right First Time”

International companies seek a trusted partner with a rare blend of international business experience and “on-the-ground” expertise to represent them during the initial company formation phases and the medium-term ongoing business support in the crucial early years of growth.

Key Selection Criteria For Serious International Investors:

The Common Factors that all Serious Investors Seek

Bondoni's Business Model Aligns Us With All The Criteria And More.

Choose your Business Structure in Oman

At Bondoni, we empower you to make the right choices for your business. Whether it's selecting the ideal business entity or navigating the complexities of different business structures, Bondoni is your partner for success. Strategically optimize your business setup in Oman for long-term success through the different types of business entity, they are as follows:

Mainland Limited Liability Company (LLC / SPC)

If you want to set up a legal entity which allows you to trade with minimal restrictions, employ your own team and have a bank account in Oman the LLC is the best option to consider.

Branch Office

A foreign company can set up a branch office whilst delivering a specific government contract. No other business can be done within this framework.

Representative Trade Office

The office is able to promote and market the sale and/or production of their products and facilitate contracts in Oman. It can also be used to promote an international business as a "shop window" but it is not permitted to trade.
