Enter Oman with Clarity. Build with Confidence.

Established in 2016, Bondoni is a globally recognised and trusted company formation and corporate services partner for international businesses entering and growing in Oman.

Market Entry

With over a decade of front-line experience advising and delivering solutions for clients from more than 40 countries across 35 sectors, we combine our business-led approach with local practical expertise and in-house legal capability to deliver operational readiness from day one and lay the foundation for long-term success.

All Corporate
Services. One
Trusted Partner.

More than a Corporate Services Provider.

We are business-led, strengthened by in-house legal expertise. For over a decade, Bondoni has guided and delivered solutions for international companies through every stage of their journey in Oman—from market entry and compliant company formation to operational management and long-term growth.

Our approach goes beyond process execution.
If you're entering Oman, start with Bondoni.

We'll guide you what needs to be achieved, structure it correctly, and ensure it gets done. We understand the full spectrum of corporate service requirements facing international businesses in Oman. As a trusted first point of contact, we provide the clarity, direction, and continuity organisations need from day one through every stage of their growth journey.

Why International Companies Choose Bondoni

We know Oman better than anyone. We understand business and regulation. We don't just advise—we deliver. We understand international expectations. We have embedded legal expertise. We anticipate challenges. And we stay with you for the long term.

Uniquely Oman

Our unrivalled understanding of Oman's business and regulatory landscape, combined with a trusted network across key public and private sector stakeholders, provides the insight, access, and influence that help international businesses establish, operate, and grow efficiently and confidently.

Where Business Strategy Meets Regulatory Confidence

Our business-led approach combines local expertise, in-house legal capability, and regulatory insight to deliver practical solutions that support operational readiness, compliance, and long-term success in Oman.

Built for International Businesses

From publicly listed multinational corporations to ambitious growth companies, we understand what international stakeholders require and deliver the clarity, responsiveness, and confidence they expect.

Strengthened by In-House Legal Expertise

In-house legal expertise is embedded within our business-led approach, ensuring decisions are commercially sound, regulatory compliant, and positioned for sustainable growth.

Advice That Delivers

We do more than advise. From day one, we anticipate challenges, implement practical solutions, and provide the outsourced corporate services needed to establish, operate, and grow with confidence in Oman.

Long-Term Partnership

From day one onwards, Bondoni remains a trusted partner, providing the clarity, direction, continuity, and corporate services international businesses need to establish, operate, and grow with confidence in Oman.
